Proverbs 14:11-12 — ¹¹ The house of the wicked will be destroyed, but the tent of the upright will flourish. ¹² There is a way that seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death.

Sunday Service/Valentine's Day February 14, 2010

The topic of love is one that is central to our relationship with God and our Christian faith. Jesus stated in the New Testament that the greatest commandment is to "love God with all your heart, mind, soul, and strength". He then goes on to say the second greatest commandment is to "love your neighbor". So being that this Sunday service falls on Valentine's Day, it will be very fitting to hear a sermon that surrounds God and His love. We know that in the world we live in the Valentine's holiday brings with it the idea of "romantic love". Let's come to worship service focused on the pure, comprehensive, and unceasing love of our Father. With this in mind, be sure to "love" the men and women you come into contact with and invite them out to this amazing worship service. We will meet at the church building beginning at 1:00 pm.

Sunday Service February 21, 2010

This service will not only be a great opportunity to worship and honor God, but we will also be seeing a number of updates via ICOC Hot News in regards to various happenings around the kingdom of God. There will also be a sermonette following the children heading to their classes. As always, our service will begin at 1:00 pm so please be sure to be ready to worship at that time.

Sunday Service February 28, 2010

We will once again be seeing a couple of short videos from ICOC Hot News in regards to things taking place throughout our family of churches around the world. We all know the encouragement we receive as a church family when we have the opportunity to hear the good news that is taking place in our kingdom around us. This also helps our friends and family who are visiting with us get a glimpse of just how incredible God is and how amazingly He works through our brothers and sisters in various places around the globe. Let us all remember to spend some time alone with the Lord before we come together in corporate worship.

Pray for the women's devo that will take place tomorrow night. Ask God to bless the prayer, fellowship, openness, relationship building, inspiration, and encouragement in powerful ways.

Pray for the evangelism of the church to reflect the heart of Jesus and His love as well.

Pray for the men and women who are studying the Bible and for the continued growth in their relationship with God.

Pray for all that were impacted by the Haiti earthquake and those who continue to be impacted.

Prayers Answered

Mary McNair and Debbie Ebhuoma have been praying for volunteers to help work with the preteens and teens. A member of the congregation last week volunteered their time and heart to work with this ministry. To God be the glory!

Women's Devotional

Tomorrow, Friday, February 12, the women of the CDCC will be gathering at the McNair home for the first devotional of the New Year. The church has truly come a long way in the past year and devotionals such as this will allow for the growth and maturity of the Women's Ministry. We can all attest to the fact that life is very busy and there are always so many important things to get done. At times being a disciple of Jesus causes life to be even more busy and to have more important things to accomplish. If you are feeling the time crunch when it comes to tomorrow night's devo, be sure to take some time to pray to God and think about the importance of being with the sisters and building the unity and the strength of the Women's Ministry. This devotional will begin at 6:00 pm.

Men's Forum
Saturday, February 27, 2010

The men of the CDCC are very "stoked" about having their first Men's Forum of the New Year. Our theme surrounds the idea of trying to live a godly life and survive and thrive as Christian men in a world that has many dangerous pitfalls and dangerous adversaries that want to take us down. This topic will not only connect with the men in the congregation, but it will also be a very powerful and practical outreach to the friends, family, and acquaintances we bring along with us. The Men's Forum will take place at the Turf Tavern in Scotia and will run from 9:00 am—11:00 am.

Yearly Church Goal

At our Visionary Workshop near the end of January, there were some congregational goals that were put forth before the church. At that time, we were all asked to pray for these goals and to give our time, talent, and treasure towards accomplishing the goals to the glory of God. Every now and then we will include these goals in our weekly announcements. They are as follows: 1) baptize six souls; 2) grow numerically by six souls; 3) see our attendance grow two to three souls each month; 4) see contribution grow by $300 per week by year's end.

Church Outing/Rollerskating
February 27, 2010

Just a friendly reminder that in several Saturdays we will be having our church roller-skating trip. This is a great opportunity for both kids and adults to connect and have lots of fun. More details to follow.

CDCC Women's Day 2010

On May 1, 2010, the women of the CDCC will have their annual Women's Day event. This is a spectacular opportunity for the women to unite as well as reach out to friends, family, and neighbors. Mary McNair has volunteered as event coordinator and is gathering together a team to make this day great.
