Proverbs 13:18-20 — ¹⁸ He who ignores discipline comes to poverty and shame, but whoever heeds correction is honored. ¹⁹ A longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul, but fools detest turning from evil. ²⁰ He who walks with the wise grows wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm.

Sunday Service January 31, 2010

It will be very encouraging to once again be able to invite our friends and family out to church service!! If you remember, last Sunday was our Visionary Workshop, and, therefore, we had more of a "church members only" service. The prior two weeks our attendance at church was growing, and hopefully we will see that trend continue for the final service of January 2010. There are two special presentations that will be taking place during service. One of them is the special collection we will be taking up for our sister church in Haiti due to the recent earthquake. The reason we are going to do this was explained at our Visionary Workshop, and hopefully everyone has been praying for this collection. We are currently working on showing a video that will detail some of the destruction and devastation that has taken place. The second special presentation will be given by Tim and Lisa Deck. At our Visionary Workshop last week, the Decks were unable to share with the congregation their visionary lesson on "The Mission". Therefore, our minister has humbly offered the Decks the sermon portion of our worship service to share their hearts and insights in this vital area of our walk with God. Time permitting, Scott will share on our theme for 2010 which is "A Year of Faith".

House Church/Super Bowl Sunday February 7, 2010

The family group leaders decided to do something different for our church service that we typically highlight as Super Bowl Sunday. In other words, in the past we have had people show up to service in their favorite team or sporting apparel, and then following service we would sometimes have one big Super Bowl party or a bunch of smaller ones set up throughout the congregation. This year we will be having house churches which will be followed by a family group Super Bowl party. More details will be forthcoming from the various family groups.

NOTE: This will be a great opportunity to reach out to the people you are sharing your faith with. By getting them to this service, you will help them understand just how spiritually committed the church is, but also how strong the relationships are within the church and how the church members love to have fun. Start inviting people out now because people typically make plans ahead of time when it comes to watching the Super Bowl.

Pray for our upcoming HOPE Haiti collection that will be taken up this Sunday for our sister church in Haiti.

Pray for all the goals, plans, and visions that were shared at this past Sunday's workshop.

Pray for the men and women who are currently studying the Bible.

Pray that we could see 70 or more souls worshipping this upcoming Sunday.

Pray for the ongoing relief effort in Haiti as well as those who lost loved ones, those who are currently dealing with injuries, and our church family in Haiti.

Pray over the yearly calendar and the events that are highlighted on it.

Prayers Answered

God answered all of our prayers for the Visionary Workshop. It was informative, insightful, inspirational, and visionary.

Sunday Service/Valentine's Day February 14, 2010

Who can remember the last time our Sunday worship service fell on Valentine's Day??? Nevertheless, this year we will be coming together to show our love and appreciation to God for the love and grace He first showed us. Our nation celebrates the Valentine's holiday in a more romantic manner when it comes to relationships between men and women. Let's take this opportunity to not focus on the romantic aspect of the holiday, but let's think of it in terms of the unconditional love that God showers down on each and every one of us. Due to the timing of this service, our sermon will be on "God's Love". As always, let's give all of our heart and effort in getting as many souls out to service as possible.

Visionary Workshop

Our workshop this past Sunday was clearly blessed by God and guided by the Holy Spirit. The men and women who spoke during the workshop truly had God and His Kingdom on their hearts. The same can be said for all those who were not up front. The result of this was a great deal of vision, inspiration, and encouragement. Comments such as "this was amazing"..."the Spirit was truly moving"..."the church is at such a healthier place than at the start of 2009"..."were heard coming from the mouths of our church family members. The hope now is that we will truly move forward and build on the foundation laid last year and see the miracles that God will do throughout the year. However, we all must realize that 2010 is "A Year of Faith"!!

2010 Yearly Calendar/CDCC Contact List

A thank you goes out to the entire congregation for their willingness to volunteer as event coordinators for each and every event we were hoping to have in 2010. A thank you also goes out to the family group leaders for working so diligently at coming up with all the events and then being sure to keep the volunteer sign-up sheet out in front of the congregation. Finally, a thank you goes out to Lisa Deck for taking the time to design, type, and print the yearly calendar as well as the contact list. If you did not receive either of these, please be sure to get them either at tonight's mid-week or at this upcoming Sunday service.

Preteen/Young Teen Event Friday, January 29, 2010

C'mon. We are only one day away from lots and lots of fun and craziness. The preteens and young teens will be hookin' up at the McNair's crib from 6:30 pm—9:30 pm. A big encouragement goes out to all the parents to make sure their son or daughter is inviting out their friends to be at this rockin' game night. Remember, this is a great way to help the kids feel secure and proud when it comes to their faith and their church. The event will cost only $5 and we will use the money for pizza. The parents can either drop off their kids or stay if they would like, but this does NOT include younger siblings. Let's party!!!

Glen Eddy Nursing Home Saturday, January 30, 2010

This upcoming Saturday we will be headed as a church-wide family to the Glen Eddy Nursing Home. We are hoping that there will be a great turn-out so that we can build memories together as we carry out the calling of Christ. We hope not only to make a Valentine's craft with the residents, but also to sing some church songs for them all. The plan is to be bringing the songbooks with us so that we could do an awesome job on behalf of the Lord for the residents of the nursing home. The plan is to be there at 10:30 am sharp and you can find directions by going to www.nehealth.com/retirement_living/gleneddy/directions/. If this link doesn't work for some reason, go to www.nehealth.com and search from there. See everyone there.

Free Furniture

Usually we don't include announcements like this but, I thought it was a great opportunity for someone needing furniture. I was asked by my neighbor to do the funeral of his Father. I did the funeral of his Mother some years back. His Father moved to an apartment less than a year ago and bought some furniture. This includes: Couch/chairs/end-tables/double bed with brand new mattress/some other items. According to my neighbor, "I don't even think the couch was sat in". All would be for free so the price is right!! One more thing, the Father owned a Ford Taurus that he took care of like a child. If anyone would like to look at it, they are selling it for an amazing price. Please see Scott if interested.

Women's Devotional Friday, February 12, 2010

The women of the CDCC will be having their first devotional of the year. Each and every woman has received an invite so please let Mary McNair know whether or not you will be attending. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Men's Forum: Date Change

The men of the CDCC originally planned their Men's Forum for Saturday, February 20. Unfortunately, the Turf Tavern is booked solid for that date. Therefore, the men moved it one week back and will be having it on Saturday, February 27, at the Turf Tavern beginning at 9:00 am. Please be sure to start inviting people now!!

NOTE: We do realize that our yearly calendar shows that we will be having a church-wide rollerskating outing on Saturday, February 27. The Men's Forum is early in the morning and will not conflict with the rollerskating outing.
