Proverbs 13:6-7 — ⁶ Righteousness guards the man of integrity, but wickedness overthrows the sinner. ⁷ One man pretends to be rich, yet has nothing; another pretends to be poor, yet has great wealth.

Sunday Service January 10, 2010

Last week's worship service kicked off the New Year in a great way. We came together with sincere hearts and a desire to grow close to God as we sang to Him, prayed to Him, listened to Him, learned from Him, and fellowshiped with one another. This upcoming Sunday's worship will be no different and the hope is that everybody comes prepared as humble and empty vessels to be filled up by our one and only God. We will have the opportunity to hear from two brothers, Joe Exley and Byron Smith, as they preach during the Sunday sermon. Please be praying for each of these brothers to be led by God's spirit and to speak from His Word in a powerful and effective manner. We did have a couple of friends and family visiting with us last week, and we hope to build on that and see more friends and family out with us this week.

There was great repentance among all those who have serving responsibilities during service last Sunday. In other words, the singers, sound crew, teachers, etc. arrived right around 12:30 pm and service started promptly at 1:00 pm. Please continue to pray that this respect of God and each other continues when it comes to preparing for service and starting on time. The vision for 2010 is that each and every member can make it to service about 15 minutes early so that there is time for some great pre-service fellowship.

NOTE: If for some reason you were not at service this past Sunday, please be sure to go to our website and listen to the Sunday sermon. Mark Rogers, who did the lion's share of the speaking, did an incredible job on behalf of our Lord.

Sunday Service—Martin Luther King, Jr. January 17, 2010

As we come to service focusing on our one and only God, all of us in one way or another will probably have on our minds Martin Luther King, Jr. In the past we have recognized the accomplishments of MLK Jr. on behalf of both God and people of all races. This year we hope to do this once again so please be praying for volunteers to step forward and help in this manner for our service. It is the hope of each member of our congregation that we continue to grow and mature spiritually and in our relationships with one another...and, of course, to be faithful in our mission of seeking and saving the lost. Service will begin at 1:00 pm and remember let's all try to arrive early. To God be the glory!!

Prayer Requests

Pray for Sabrina that the nerve conduction test she undergoes will very clearly determine whether or not she will need surgery on her forearms.

Pray for Jeff and Chico. These are two men currently studying the Bible. Jeff is very close to becoming our brother in Christ.

Pray for the women who are currently studying the Bible. A couple of them are starting to study once again after taking some time off.

Pray for our upcoming Visionary Workshop.

Pray for all of the children in our congregation that at whatever age they may be, they are growing in their relationship with God.

Prayers Answered

The men and women of the congregation have been praying that God add brothers to the church. So far this month God has answered that prayer and added two new brothers to the Men's Ministry.

Sunday Service—Visionary Workshop January 24, 2010

We will begin our Sunday service with some singing then have a welcome and prayer after which we will have our contribution collection and finish off service by taking communion together. After that we will have a 15 minute fellowship break as we get our children situated, and then we will come back for our Visionary Workshop. Each year this gathering provides us with some inspirational teaching, important information, and a great vision for the upcoming year. Some highlights from this year's Visionary Workshop are as follows: sharing from various family group leaders, a budget update, some congregational goals for 2010, some great singing, and much more. Please make note that the time frame for both our Sunday service and our Visionary Workshop will be 1:00 pm—4:30 or 5:00 pm...the ending time will be finalized at this Sunday's family group leaders meeting.

NOTE: We always want to bring friends and family out to our worship service so just be sure to explain to any visitors you may be bringing that it will be an abbreviated service. They are welcome to stay for the workshop, but it may be a bit too much for visitors.

2010 Volunteer Sign-up Sheet

This is just a loving reminder to all members of the congregation to please be sure to look over the updated Volunteer Sign-up Sheet and see if there are any events left that you can volunteer for. We have until Sunday, January 17, 2010, to volunteer for an event.

Welcome to Our New Brothers

At this past Sunday service, we all got to meet the newest brother to our church family, DJ. Here tonight we have another brother joining our church family and his name is Andy Lane... Andy can you stand up?

Glen Eddy Nursing Home Saturday, January 30, 2010

The entire congregation is encouraged to participate in this on-going service project at the Glen Eddy Nursing Home. Throughout the year we will try to develop an on-going relationship with the Glen Eddy Nursing Home as we reach out to the elderly who are residents there. This will be the first of four trips that we take to the Glen Eddy and our hope is that as many members of the congregation as possible attend each of these outings. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Spiritual Growth 2010

Scott would like to encourage each member of the congregation to take some time with God, if you haven't done so already, and talk with God about some areas you would like to spiritually grow in this year. It may help to talk with someone who knows you well to get some input on areas to grow in spiritually.
