

CDCC Sunday Announcements

- 1) Sunday, August 22nd: We will be meeting back here next Sunday, starting at 1pm. Our Worship service is sure to be filled with God's presence and Spirit. We hope that you all can join us once again and that we have other friends and family visiting with us. Hopefully, you were touched by God in some way during today's service.
- 2) Thursday, August 19th: This upcoming mid week service will be held in Family Group settings. We all know what an awesome dynamic this puts on our meeting together and we hope to see everyone be able to make it out to the various locations. Information about this mid week service will be forthcoming from our Family Group Leaders.
- 3) Children's Ministry Teachers: We are looking for some spiritually enthusiastic members to volunteer to teach in our Children's ministry for this upcoming rotation. The new rotation starts this upcoming September and runs through November. This is a great opportunity to help shape the hearts and minds of our young ones when it comes to understanding how amazing God truly is. If you are interested, please contact Mary McNair via phone, email, text or let her know face to face.
- 4) Prayer Request: A) Pray for Reece Smith as he undergoes minor Surgery. B) Pray for Meagan McNair who is at teen camp throughout this upcoming week.
