

CDCC Announcement

- 1) Sunday Service, December 27th: Two days after Christmas Day, we will have our final Worship Service of 2009. As we come into the Church building next Sunday, lets all be prepared to give our total attention to God and whole hearted Worship. This will be a great opportunity to draw close to God with your brothers and sisters. We can leave this service with a sense of direction when it comes to preparing ourselves Spiritually for the New Year. Remember, be out amongst the public sharing your faith and inviting people out to this final service of the year!!
- 2) Thursday, December 24th: Our mid week service fall on Christmas Eve and therefore, we will be cancelling this service. We hope everyone has a very blessed Christmas Eve and make sure that there is no one in your FG that will be alone for Christmas.
- 3) Church Wide Caroling: This upcoming Wednesday, December 23rd ...the congregation has a night of caroling open to the members and their friends. If you are planning on going, please let Scott McNair now ASAP. This is also a great event to bring the children to. It is a whole lot of fun and very unifying!!!
- 4) 2010 Congregational Events: Be sure to keep an eye out for the Volunteer sign up sheet for all Church events in the New Year. We will have some great events to sign up for!!
