

- 1) Sunday, June 13th: We hope that our Worship Service today help all of you to understand better what it really means to trust God!! For our Service next Sunday, we will be focusing on Faith in God and how to use that Faith to His glory. We hope that everyone can once again make it and feel free to bring along a couple of friends or family members. Service will once again be here at the church building, starting at 1pm.
- 2) Thursday, June 10th: Our mid week service this upcoming Thursday will include all the men along with the singles and Campus Women. We will be tying in the Sunday topic of Trust with our year long focus on Faith. Truly, trust and faith are intertwined in many ways. This will be a empowering time for all who are present. We will be meeting at the church building , starting at 7pm.
- 3) Women's Retreat June 11-12th: The Women of the congregation are headed on a Spiritually bonding and fun filled retreat this upcoming weekend. This will give the women a chance to spend some amazing time of fellowship and relationship building . More details will be forthcoming this week. We hope that every Woman in the church will be able to attend.
- 4) Preteen and Teen Fundraiser: Following today's service these ministries will be selling Hot Dogs, snacks and drinks to raise money for their summer camps!!!
